June 2022

National Indigenous History Month

In honour of National Indigenous History Month and National Indigenous Peoples Day, check out a book from the Bouchier Indigenous Cultural Corner and engage with the diverse histories, cultures, and experiences of Indigenous Peoples from across Turtle Island. The BICC also houses significant pieces such as a 16 ft. mural by Cree-Ojibew artist, Simone McLeod, a framed Métis sash donated by McMurray Métis, & more!

Next time you visit the library, take a tour around the BICC and immerse yourself in Indigenous culture and history.

Throughout June, in partnership with the RMWB's upcoming It's Time to Read title 21 Things You May Not Know About the Indian Act, we'll be exploring daily topics about the history and impact of the Indian Act, leading up to National Indigenous Peoples Day on June 21st. Make sure you're following our social media so you don't miss out on these posts, giveaways, and opportunities to learn!

WBRL appreciates the continued support of our Indigenous programming sponsor, Suncor.

Beanstack

Have you signed up for Beanstack?  beanstack

Beanstack is a web and mobile app that tracks reading for all ages and creates a reading culture in our community. There are activities and challenges for readers, and some epic prizes. Download the app from Google Play or the App Store and sign up by selecting our library and filling in your information.

Track your reading, join challenges, add your friends, and more!
