

Library Card Design Contest

We're releasing three limited edition library cards and we want your amazing, original art on them! Submit your design based on one of three themes for your chance to have your art featured on a WBRL library card and a $200 gift card to Opus Art!

Themes:

LIBRARY - DIVERSITY - WOOD BUFFALO

Rules:

- Entries open March 1 and close June 7, winners to be announced during Canadian Library Month.
- Ages 4+
- All entries must be submitted in PDF, Adobe Illustrator, Adobe InDesign or Photoshop.
- You may enter in each category but can only win once
- Your image may be one image for the main card that is duplicated & re-sized for the snap off card, or be one image that covers the entirety of both cards
- Images of all mediums will be accepted
- No lewd or vulgar content will be accepted
- Must be original artwork
- Please initial your artwork in the lower right hand corner
- Winning artwork will be featured on 250 limited edition WBRL library cards and featured in marketing throughout the year

How to submit:

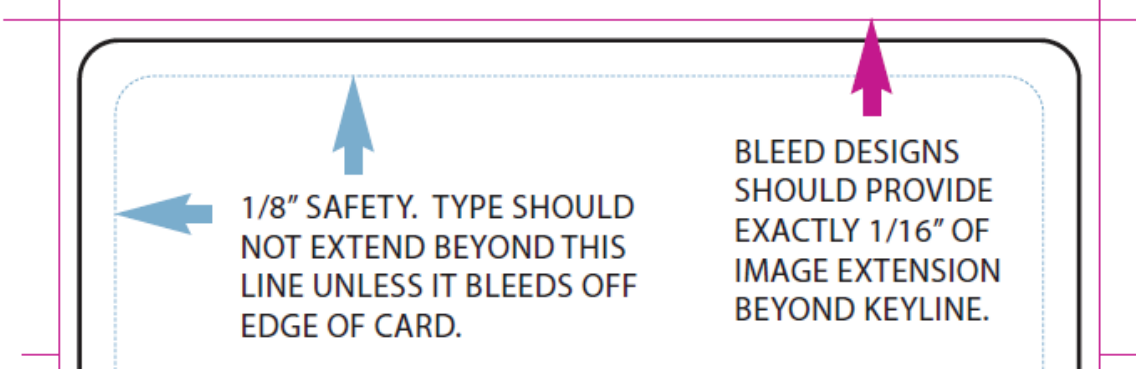

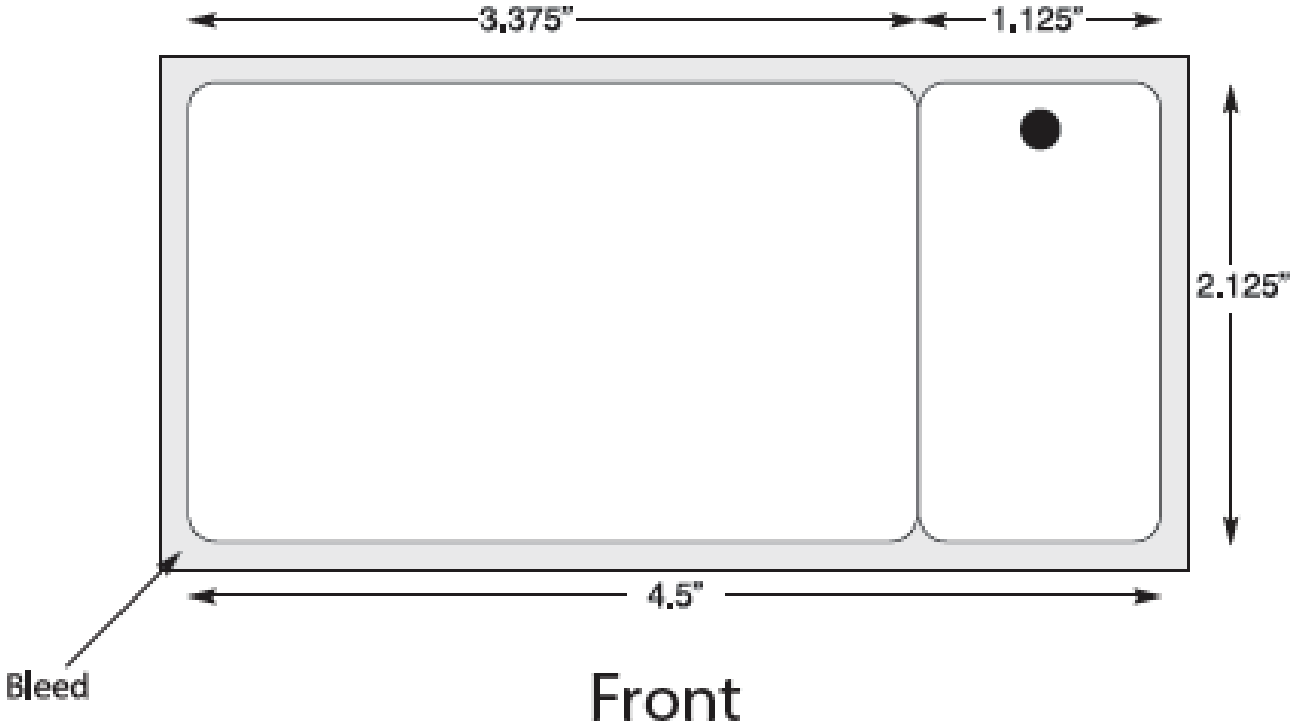

-Submit your artwork in the acceptable format and include your name, age, and category you are submitting for in an email to librarydesign@wbrl.ca.

Judges:

Are you a local artist who would be interested in judging and selecting our winners? Email Sally at community.services@wbrl.ca. Note, judges will be unable to enter the contest.

Have questions? Email us at librarydesign@wbrl.ca.

Library Card Design Guidelines

- All entries must be submitted in PDF, Adobe Illustrator, Adobe InDesign or Photoshop.
- Submit artwork to librarydesign@wbrl.ca