Study Space Guidelines

-  There are 10 tables and 3 study carrels available on the second floor of the library for single person pre-booking for the purpose of studying (18+)
-  There are 4 tables available on the first floor of the library for small (max 4) cohort group pre-booking for the purpose of studying (all ages)
-  There are no meeting room or private group spaces available for booking.
-  Study spaces can be booked by visiting one of the Reference Desks in person or by calling 780-743-7073.
-  First floor group (max 4) study spaces must be booked by a patron (16+) in accordance with our Unattended Children Policy. Booking patron must be present for the duration of the booking. Unattended children may not remain at study spaces at any time.
-  Same day walk in bookings will be made when available within time blocks
-  Patrons must provide a phone number to book a study space
-  Bookings are a maximum of 1.5hr
-  Patrons must check in with Reference Services before occupying a study space. Those using spaces without checking in will be asked to check in or leave, based on availability.

-  Bookings will be cancelled if you have not arrived within the first 10 minutes of your booking.
-  Please respect social distancing and observe the 6ft guidelines around yours and other designated study spaces.
-  Daily bookings may be made for a maximum of 2 consecutive days or 2 consecutive weekly bookings.
-  Study space bookings are made solely on a first come, first serve basis. No waitlists will be maintained.
-  Please do not move chairs from the study table(s). Only 1 chair is permitted at each study space on the second floor. Maximum 4 chairs are permitted at each group study table on the first floor.
-  The library has free WiFi Internet that is accessible anywhere in the library, including the second floor. Network name is WBRLWIFI and the password is wbrlwifi
-  The library will not provide storage for students, and therefore will not watch over person items in a users' absence. The study space must be occupied for the entire length of the booking. Leaving the study space unattended for more than 15 minutes will forfeit the reservation.
-  The first floor study group spaces are for the purpose of study. Please use quiet voices when speaking and remain seated throughout your booking.
-  Please be aware that although the study spaces on the first floor are intended for quiet study, the floor is not silent and you will hear voices from adjacent tables, patrons and staff during your visit.
-  The second floor of the library is a designated study zone. Please enter and exit areas quietly. No cell phones or virtual meetings involving voice will be permitted to respect the quiet area for all patrons.
-  Please be aware that although the second floor contains study spaces, the floor is not silent and you will hear voices from patrons and staff during your visit.
-  The library is a scent aware facility.
-  Disposable masks are available at each Reference Desk.
